VOICE FOR PINGE

The REVIEW believes that for the best interests of Redcliff and Redcliff riding the voters should elect their vote for Mr. Chas. S. Pinge, for we believe that he understands the needs of this riding, better than Mr. Jervis does and will be in a better position to assist this district for the reason that the Sifton government is sure to be returned to power.

CANDIDATES NOMINATED.

Charles Stewart Pinge, (Liberal), agent, H.O. Wagner, of Carleton Place; Harry Stinson-Jewett (Conservative), agent, A. H. P. monson, of Carleton Place; were nominated at the Maple Hall on Thursday 10th inst. Both Candidates were present with their solicitors and supporters, and on the 17th of the month the speaker and gave a masterly address of over an hours duration in which he completely covered the entire work completed by the government, and swept aside the false arguments of the Liberal side. Mr. Pinge never spoke better and the whole tone of the meeting was plain for Pinge and the Sifton Government.

C. S. Pinge holds Meetings at Redcliff.

Last Saturday, Mr. Pinge visited Redcliff in person and held a most enthusiastic meeting, the audience being principally composed of the United Farmers Association. Geo. Cantor occupied the chair. Mr. Pinge was the principal speaker and gave a masterly address of over an hours duration in which he completely covered the entire work completed by the government, and swept aside the false arguments of the Liberal side. Mr. Pinge never spoke better and the whole tone of the meeting was plain for Pinge and the Sifton Government.

In the evening, the Maple Hall at Redcliff was packed to capacity. The Pipe Band from the Hat was in attendance and opened the proceedings with a grand selection in front of the stage. David Broadfoot occupied the chair, and on a settled down to business, calling upon Mr. Henderson, J.P., A. P. Day and L. Laidlaw to address the meeting, previous talking on Mr. Pinge, who was the bright, peculiar star of the evening. These gentlemen gave short but telling addresses, but it was easily seen at an early stage of the proceedings that there was unity of opinion on the meeting, and the storm burst out when C.S. Pinge took the stage. Mr. Pinge was in splendid form and got away to a fine start on a great fighting speech, but unfortunately for the fate of Redcliff, a number of undisciplined citizens or hoodlums at the back of the hall, constantly interrupted the speaker and annoyed the rest of the audience. The speaker got so bad at one time that the few ladies who were in the audience fled in consternation. Mr. Pinge struggled manfully against the opposition, but was the gentleman first, last and all the time. He brought his address to an abrupt conclusion, saying: "I thank you all, at least most of you, for your presence here to-night. I have been here to-night myself--have seen the day when I liked to kick up a bit of a noise at a political meeting, but think a speaker should always get a fair hearing, and I hope that when my opposition or his supporters come to speak, that no Liberal or supporter of mine will cause him any interruption. (Cheers).

Messrs. Geo. Constable, Fred Courtwell, and D. McLachlan, ordered songs sung acceptably during the evening.

POLICE COURT.

Chief Sullivan called a hurray up Court on Thursday evening at 9 o'clock, when Peta Swanson was charged with supplying whiskey to Douglas Harden, an interdict. Swanson pleaded guilty and Magistrate Henderson imposed a fine of fifty dollars or two months imprisonment. Being Swanson's first offence, and there being an element of doubt in the case, Mr. Henderson regretted he could not reduce the penalty which was the minimum the law allowed.

Harden was next charged with being drunk, assaulting his wife and daughter and using abusive language, and got sent shift at the hands of the Magistrate who found him not only guilty, but a dangerous citizen, and sentenced him to three months imprisonment at Lethbridge.

The late Mr. Nicholas Jackman.

The REVIEW regrets to announce the death of Mr. Nicholas Jackman, author of our esteemed editions, John and Henry Jackman, son of Jackman, a son to Redcliff about three weeks ago from Edmonton to make his home with his eldest son John, and although not what you might call a robust health, outside of a distressing cough, there was no reason for anxiety. About a week ago, the old gentleman seemed to break up, and Dr. Brown was called to attend. His condition proved rather alarming, and he was removed to Mother's Hospital on Sunday night, but the patient apparently was too weak to throw off his ailment and died at the Hospital on the afternoon of Monday at one o'clock.

Mr. Jackman was 70 years of age and 5 months old, and practically up to within a few weeks of his death was a hale and active old man.

The funeral took place at Mother's Hospital, the deceased being buried in the Roman Catholic Cemetery in that city.

BIG INCREASE IN VALUATION

Assessor Wm. Henderson, J.P., gives the Review an approximate idea of how the assessment roll reads and the figures are distinctly interesting. They are figures can't lie, and what Mr. Henderson has to say is certainly remarkable.

In 1912 the Assessment of Redcliff was $60,000.00, to-day the figures read $83,638.08, which shows an increase in 12 months of nearly 50%. This is a most satisfactory state of affairs and if there are any doubting Thomases at regards Redcliff prosperity, a mere reference to the above figures should prove sufficient.

Tenders.

Tenders will be received by the Town of Redcliff for the construction of a sewerage line for the town of Redcliff. The sewerage line is to be constructed in the town of Redcliff, and the tenders will be received by the Mayor's office, sealed tenders will be received at the office, on Saturday, April 12, 1913. The town reserves the right to reject any or all tenders.

E. C. DANIELZ, Mayor.

MASONS TO BUILD AT ONCE

Association Met Tuesday and Elected Officers.

The first general meeting of the stockholders of the Redcliff Masonic Building Association, Limited, was held in the office of John L. Landis & Co. on Tuesday night, 15 gentlemen being present. A. J. Nicholson was elected chairman of the meeting, while E. A. Dyer acted as secretary pro tem.

Mr. Dyer, who is a barrister from Bassano, and solicitor for the Association, was present in the latter capacity and greatly assisted in the general arrangement of the company, giving valuable advice as to formation and general organization.

The reading of the by-laws took up quite a little time and after these had been fully gone into and discussed it was decided to elect five directors, the chairman calling for nomination. The following gentlemen were then duly proposed and unanimously elected: J. L. Landis, Dr. R. R. Stouffer, H. Bryant, A. J. Nicholson, and Wm. J. Hatcher.

Mr. Landis next offered to the Association his two lots at the corner of Broadway and Fourth street, known as lot 10 and 11, block 70, for $15,000, agreeing to take stock for the full amount, the offer being made with the proviso that the Association would erect thereon a four-story building, same to be finished in a reasonable time. This was agreed to and the meeting adjourned.

A further meeting of the board of directors was held Wednesday at 10 o'clock in the office of A. J. Nicholson, when the following officers were elected: L. H. Bryant, president; Dr. R. R. Stouffer, first vice-president; John L. Landis, second vice-president; A. J. Nicholson, secretary-treasurer. The agreement submitted by Mr. Landis, and the Association, whereby he transferred his lots to the latter was adopted.

Plans will be asked for immediately for the new Masonic Temple and it is expected construction work will be in full swing within the next month or so. The building which they hope to see erected will be 50,000 four stories high, solid brick and will without doubt be the most imposing structure in our town.

Don't forget the Liberal smoker at the Maple Hall tonight, with the chance of hearing W. A. Buchanan, M. P. of the Federal House, and the big advocate of our gas rights in this district.

Mr. Bill Moran and children have arrived on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher. Would it this visit mean anything? There's a talk of wedding bells down south in about a week's time.

The Ladies Aid will hold another afternoon tea in the Presbyterian Church on Thursday, the 17th inst. from 3 to 6 P. M. All are welcome and may expect an enjoyable social hour. The charge is only 15 cents.

The section of the new fire hall and police station is now going ahead, the excavation being completed and the contract calls for the building to be finished in sixty days, and we hope to be in possession of these new town buildings by the first of June at the latest. Holman, Leader & God are the contractors.

The Redcliff Football Club held a meeting on Monday and determined to get a move on for the season. The preliminary matter was the election of officers and they came out of the hat as follows: President, F. E. Cuthbert, vice-president, Robert Bicknell, secretary, W. R. Bicknell, treasurer, L. H. Bryant, committee, J. Ferguson, H. Hamilton and J. Osmond.

There will be service in the Presbyterian Church Sunday forenoon at 11, and in the Empire Theatre at 2:30 in the evening. At the first the sermon will treat of the songs of the Christian Life. In the evening the philosophical basis of religion will be set forth in answer to the question "How do I know that there is a God?"

Mr. George Brown, manager of the North Redcliff office of the Loan-Cook & Brown Co., arrived in town yesterday. This is Mr. Brown's third trip to Redcliff. George has already been a great booster for North Redcliff, but had to admit that Redcliff has the prospects of being the greatest manufacturing city in Western Canada.

Mr. N. L. Kysor, father-in-law of F. F. Woodcock, and lots of Buffalo, is a prospector and mineralogist of thirty years standing. Mr. Kysor is making a study of conditions as regards minerals in this neighborhood and the Review hopes to announce shortly some interesting facts as to something else than gas and coal which he holds in our north-western townships.

William Myers, who has been running the pool room at the lower end of the town, has relinquished his lease and taken to the land or rather gone on his honeymoon. Mr. Myers has made himself most popular at the old stand and the boys are sorry to see him go. The new pool office to Myers' farm is called Cuthbert. We hope he will, that is--any sportsman or Jack Rabbit, but a big one. Fred Nashua has succeeded Mr. Myers at the pool room and the Review hopes that Fred will have as successful a season as his predecessor.
